

M.S. in Quality Assurance

Information Session - June 26
Whiting Campus - 9:00 am

STEP UP!

To A Management Degree That Opens Doors

The Master of Science in Quality Assurance (MSQA) degree at Calumet College of St. Joseph is designed for professionals who support total quality, continuous improvement and process management within:

- Education
- Engineering
- Healthcare
- Food industry
- Non-profit organizations
- Government

The career opportunities in this rapidly growing field are excellent as the demand for graduate Quality Assurance professionals in Chicago and Northwest Indiana continues to grow.

MSQA is an accelerated program that removes the time and space barriers that often prevent working professionals from completing graduate level education.
